

Breakout Sessions 2025

Navigating Hard Things:
Mindset Matters
Lisa Meiners
(Morning Only)

Facing life’s challenges, our perspective and mindset are crucial. Through a biblical perspective, women learn to trust God’s promises, find strength in faith, and view adversity as an opportunity for growth. Let’s examine how scripture influences resilience, alters our perspective on hardship, and empowers us to face difficulties with steady hope and purpose.

Jesus Across the Generations
Kylie Owens

Join us for a heartfelt time of encouragement and connection as we talk about one of the greatest callings we have as women—sharing the love of Jesus with the next generation. Together we’ll explore simple, practical ways to weave the Gospel into everyday moments with our children, grandchildren, and the young people God places in our lives. This workshop will inspire you to live out your faith in a way that leaves a lasting impact and equips the next generation to walk boldly with Christ.

When the Hurt Runs Deep
Connie Randall

This session will give you tools to use when you are going through: 1) times in your life when you feel like Job of the Old Testament 2) times in your life when you feel like you just are not sure how you can keep moving ahead because the pain and grief is so great. God’s Word is like the balm of Gilead. Her prayer is that those who take part in this session will understand this better. Connie is not exempt from pain and grief and because of this she desires to share with others the strong tower we can run to in the hurt that runs deep.

Receiving Reminders: It Rocks!
Becky Ransome

This session examines how challenges in life can lead us to different paths. As an add on with “Armed with Umbrellas, LLC”, God led me to an additional avenue to minister with this unique crafted item using rocks and wire. It is titled “Rooted Rocks” and reminds us to be rooted in Christ Jesus. Participants will gain understanding of the importance of receiving reminders, and methods for integrating reminders into daily routines.

Tough Relationships
Terry Fennig

Terry will share how our God-given core longings influence our relationships and how those longings can be met in Christ Jesus, thus taking pressure off our earthly relationships. We will learn what it looks like to be tight fisted in our relationship with God and others, as well as what it is to be open handed with God and with others.

Hearing the Voice of the Father and Becoming His Daughter
Christa Curtiss

Do you long to know God deeply and hear His voice? In this session, you will embark on a journey of discovering the voice of the Father, dismantling lies and unbelief and be invited to let go of the orphan mindset and take hold of your true identity as a daughter of the King.

Prayer and Paint Creative Space

This breakout will be a self-led artistic experience where participants will use painting/coloring as a form of prayer, contemplation, and spiritual connection. This combines the creative process of painting on rocks, canvas, or colored pencils on coloring pages, with times of prayer and reflection. There will be soft worship music playing in the background as participants create, process, pray, and draw closer to the Lord in an intimate way. All skill levels welcomed.

Mothers’ Panel (Afternoon Breakout Only)

Join our group of mothers in all stages of motherhood as they share wisdom, offer guidance, and discuss their roles in raising children and strengthening their families according to God’s word. This panel will focus on nurturing children’s spiritual growth, teaching biblical practices, personal growth as a mother, and practical advice for family life providing encouragement and support to mothers and grandmothers. Our panel will feature a mother with young children, an adoptive mother, a single mother, a grandmother, and great grandmother.
