Hearing the Voice of The Father & Becoming His Daughter

Christa Curtiss

“My Sheep hear my voice, I know
them, and they follow me”

John 10:27

“you will seek me and FIND me
when you seek me with your whole heart.”

Jeremiah 29:13

“I pray that the Father of glory, the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, would impart to you the riches of the Spirit of wisdom and the Spirit of revelation to know him through your deepening intimacy with him.

I pray that the light of God will illuminate the eyes of your imagination, flooding you with light, until you experience the full revelation of the hope of his calling —that is, the wealth of God’s glorious inheritances that he finds in us, his holy ones!”

Ephesians 1:17-18 (TPT)

“He supplies life and breath and all things to every living being. He doesn’t lack a thing that we mortals could supply for Him, for He has all things and everything
He needs.”

Acts 17:25 (TPT)

“He has done this so that every person would long for God, feel their way to Him, and find Him – for He is the God who is easy to discover!

Acts 17:27 (TPT)

THE ORPHAN

- Knows God but feels no belonging.
- She is never good enough
- Continually seeks approval and recognition from others.
- She is always needing something more to feel loved and enough.
- She works to please and feel significant.
- She struggles to trust and feels she has to do it for herself.
- The orphan lives in relational dysfunction
- She longs for love but doesn't know how to give or receive it.
- Needs to be in control to prevent hurt or disappointment.
- She is in bondage to pain, fear, shame, and comparison.
- She has no sense of authority or irreplaceable purpose.

“For the Holy Spirit makes God’s fatherhood real to us as he whispers into our innermost being, 'You are God’s beloved child!’”

Romans 8:16 (TPT)

THE FATHER'S DAUGHTER

Wears her crown with strength, compassion, and humility. She knows her life has a great purpose, and no one else can live it for her. The Father's daughter knows she is completely loved and delighted in by God just as she is. She carries a beauty all her own. It is part of the image of her Father. Anchored in the love of the Father, she freely loves, holding nothing back. She dives deep into relationships and pulls others into connection. The warmth of her life nurtures all who come near. She is tender yet strong, she is gentle yet confident. She is a warrior for good and a mother to many. The daughter knows her strength and authority, yet her eyes are filled with love and her heart with compassion. She is free, she belongs, and she is irreplaceable. She lives her life knowing she is dearly loved.
